

Workshop venues – The best of regional Victoria

September 2019

Finding the right venue for your workshop or conference is a critical piece of your event organising puzzle.

It can be quite the headache! Does the venue fit the number of people you have? Is there sufficient breakout spaces? Is accommodation available for out-of-towners? Is there natural light? and the list goes on...

At Strategic Facilitators we are often asked for venue recommendations, so to expedite your searching process, we have outlined some of our favourite venues from regional Victoria.
